February 2021

Beloved in the Lord,

By the grace of God we are in the second month of this New Year. It was at the end of February last year that our worship came to a halt due to the pandemic. This crisis is still a stumbling block to our hopes, nevertheless God is with us, who cares, protects, and leads us forward. The trials in our lives help us to build our faith in the Lord and draw us closer to Him and give us a testimony of his faithfulness that strengthen our life for others to see.

The days of the Great Lent are the days to meditate on the salvation we received through love of God, the Father by sending His Son to be suffered and crucified on the cross for the redemption of the fallen humanity. It is not the three nails that bind Christ to the cross but the sacrificial and unconditional love towards you and me and the passion for human life. The days of lent are the days of renewal as we try to deeply understand how much Christ has paid to value our life. The deeper we understand that love, the greater our dedication, obedience, and devotion to Him. This will help us to lead a more meaningful Christian life and we will be more sanctified to witnesses the grace of God which we have received.

Let us prepare ourselves for the coming lent days. It is a season for a purposeful living characterized by observing life molding practices which typify the meaning of this season that will lead us to Christ likeness. Prayer, fasting, reading scripture, almsgiving and examining our ethical life are regular practices we need to focus more during Lent. In the Sermon on the Mount (Mathew 6:1-18), Jesus points out three practices to follow: Giving (1-4), praying (5-15) and fasting (16-18). May this year's Lent help us to grow in such a vision of the Cross and love towards Christ by leading a disciplined life of meditation, contemplation and action.

The theme for the first Sunday of the lent is "Lent- Transformation of Creation." The gospel meditation is the first sign that Jesus performed in the wedding at Cana (John 2:1-11). This portion points to the human limitations that things do not have to go the way we plan but all things are possible to Christ. He is able to take care of all the needs in our lives. This passage reminds us that Christ can transform our lives and situations. Transformations happen when we seek God's will. Not only that God asks our implicit obedience to mould and transform our life. Here we see the participation of many people helped Jesus to do the miracle. God still desire human participation in God's work. When we give ourselves over to God, it will not only have profound effects on ourself, but it will also have a reflective effect on others.

Mar Thoma church prepares for the 126th Maramon Convention from 14th February, as per the Covid-19 protocol. Let us pray for the blessing of the convention. As we are moving to the end of this financial year, I urge all the parishioners to actively participate in our worship services and activities and to support the parish by paying the dues and promises if any. May God's guidance remain on us to be a witnessing community.

With Prayers,
Shibu Achen
